

PRODUCER. ENGINEER. SONGWRITER.

HAIG V.

*Pack Mentality is stifling.
Think Outlier.
Be a Wolf.*

About

Haig V. (Haig Vartzbedian) is a Montréal producer and songwriter with more than 36 years behind the board. He co-wrote and co-produced Bran Van 3000's "Drinking in L.A.", inducted into the Canadian Songwriters Hall of Fame in 2023, and produced Muzion's Félix-winning debut, a landmark of Québec hip-hop. His music has been placed more than 300 times in film, television, games and brand work.

Photo: Ariane Poulin

Credits

Canadian Songwriters Hall of Fame 2023

"Drinking in L.A." by Bran Van 3000, producer and composer

Juno Award, Alternative Album of the Year 1998

Glee, producer, composer

Félix Award, Hip-Hop Album of the Year 2000

Muzion, Mentalité Moune Morne, producer, composer

SOCAN Cultural Impact Award 2025

Muzion, "La vi ti nèg", producer, composer

SOCAN Classic Award 2019

"Drinking in L.A." by Bran Van 3000, composer

300+ sync placements

HBO, Showtime, MTV, Disney, Syfy, Xbox, Warner Bros.

Photo: Yacine M'Seffar

Selected credits

YEAR	ARTIST	TITLE	ROLE
01 2009	Bad News Brown	Born 2 Sin	Producer, six tracks
02 2022	SPRLUA with Samito	Magnum Dopus	Producer
03 Forthcoming	Fad'M	Charbonne	Producer

Press

"Glorious and deliciously creative."

Billboard

Chuck Taylor's review of the single, January 1999, which credits the production to Haig

"consistently head-nodding production courtesy of Haig V."

Exclaim!

Del F. Cowie on Muzion's Mentalité Moune Morne, September 1999

Contact

Production, sync, licensing and press

info@haigv.com

Studio

Zoodio One, Montréal